

General terms of the TKS for accommodation bookings

The translation of our general terms is provided for your convenience. Legally binding is the German version of our terms.

1. The Business Conditions apply to all arrangements made by BAMBERG Tourismus & Kongress Service (TKS) finding hotel accommodation.
2. The application represents a binding order and a binding authorisation to enter into an accommodation contract. The applicant gives his assurance that he is empowered to act for and represents the participants included in the application and accepts the Business Conditions also for the other participants.
3. The accommodation contract will be made by the applicant/participant and the hotelier upon the confirmation of booking by TKS. The conclusion of the accommodation contract places the applicant/participant and the hotelier under an obligation to perform the contract.
4. Nonutilization of the accommodation booked does not release the applicant/ participant from any payment obligation towards the hotelier. In case of recession, which must be set out in writing, cancellation fees can be charged. We recommend you to contract an insurance against hotel cancellation fees.
5. The TKS acts only as agent of the accommodation contract. The TKS is liable for its obligations as an agent. TKS isn't liable, as far as permissible in law, for bad performance, nonperformance or other violations of contract by the hotelier or persons employed by him in the performance of his obligations.
6. Place of performance for all claims under the negotiate accommodation contract shall be the registered office of the respective hotelier.